

Dear Spencer and Heidi,

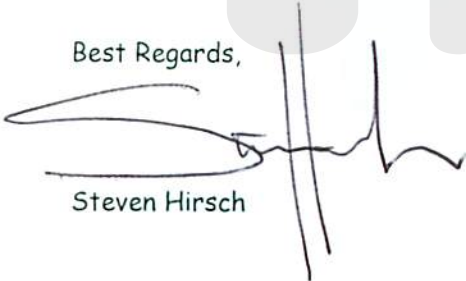

We know at the present time you are uncomfortable creating what would undoubtedly be one of the biggest selling celebrity sex tapes in history. So we would like to propose an interim opportunity that would allow you to try your hand at filmmaking, and at the same time explore your wildest fantasies.

We are offering you the chance to direct, as a couple, a series of explicit, XXX features for Vivid entitled "Spencer and Heidi...Beyond Our Wildest Dreams." The fantasies will be yours, but we will assist you in script development, casting, crew and locations...which Vivid is well known for.

We believe that your ability to keep a relationship exciting and fresh--which you must surely bring to the bedroom--combined with the filmmaking systems we already have in place, will yield an exciting new line of features as unexpected and erotic as your fans know you to be.

We are excited to review terms and timing at your earliest convenience. And once you're on the set, if you want to jump into a scene, we won't stop you.

Best Regards,

Steven Hirsch
