julie....please understand and help me, I would rather have a bullet to my head than loose my daughter...I have no money, no support, no job...not being awake makes everything better. jesse and sandy can give sunny everything. I have nothing to give her. I can't even be here for her emotionally. please, I am begging, see if mark can get me some painkillers. my life is killing me.

it really worries us when you send us emails like this and we are all the way in arkansas and cannot do anything about it. you need to focus on whats most important and that is sunny and you. taking care of her is your priority. you CAN do this. vicodin is not the answer, it makes you too incoherent. call me so we can talk. x0x

I really need you or mark to come here and help me with sun and just facing life. I am hibernating in this house and sunny is suffering. I have all the curtains closed, and I feel like someone is watching me all the time! all I want to do is keep numbing myself from facing going to jail.... I am so depressed, sun is suffering, I can't even find the energy to play with her. it's 930 and I don't even know what she ate today. can mark get vicodin? i ran out from the ones my neighbor gave me. can one of you come out to calif.? I miss you as mark would say, suck it up and drive on!

you have to be at your best for sunny! you still didn't tell me and you aren't answering your phone again...is she with you?? my space is not a priority right now...let's worry about that later.
