In an ideal world the palisades would have their own mayor and police department

I would love him to be mayor of Palisades but not LA with 4 million people.

I'd be impressed if a republican could turn LA democrats thb

At least hire someone with work experience who wasn't in a cult

I'm WORRIED about LA. I have no problem with Spencer playing government but our city needs help. Assbass sucks.

Spencer has done great work for the palisades. But LA does not need another unqualified and inexperienced mayor. A vote for him is a vote for stupidity.

And yes fact- I will always be on team Lauren Conrad. Those two spent years trying to destroy her life for magazine covers. I always side with the vulnerable who need help not the people inflicting pain on others.

Leopards never change their spots. Stay in the palisades Spencer.

I have no interest in fame, I'm taking a course to become a RBT my passion is helping children and adults with autism.

I don't even use instagram. I'm serious about my new career helping people
