

😊 ... it is 100% spiritually out of this world 🌍 !!! But a lot of women I've spoken to were so much better after they had the baby ... I didn't want mine to come out ever !!! I liked the baby being safe in my womb and close to my heart 💕 ... I know this sounds horrible but I wouldn't even let my own mother hold my babies when they were born !!! My mother never held Preston as an infant and Jayden was held one time for literally 5 seconds ... I was probably extreme but I couldn't let go 🙌 !!! Almost too bonded !!! Talk about mama bear 🧸 ... good God !!! I had girlfriends and close cousins who all got so sick they lost weight and their arm got skinnier type of pregnancies ... some women I've seen doing drenched classes with a full belly where the teacher has a headset and the music 🎧 is so freaking loud that they are screaming over the music ... the class is already pretty hard for someone who is not pregnant ... now to ME ... it was like fucking devil 😈 !!! I was mean as hell ... it was beyond me ... I think the thing that made people so uncomfortable was the fact I was unbelievably SILENT 🤫 !!! But geez my ex-husband wouldn't see me when I flew to New York with a baby inside me and Las Vegas when he was shooting a video !!! And as my brother's best friend shows up to support a very pregnant 🤰 woman in Vegas because he felt and PLAYED IT OFF TALKING AND EATING ICE ALL NIGHT !!! I swear I like huge pickles and biting down on ice 🧊 literally every day !!! I was so weird ... as the ice hit my tongue I got a text saying "If you don't divorce Kevin he will publicly do it to you ..." Since I hadn't seen him in a while I already knew it was over ... I had my baby 👶 and went out literally 2 times with Paris and it was all over the news like I was a party girl ... Whatever ... it's over now and I've made my peace with it ... Although writing my book 📖 is actually hard after speaking for 2 hours each time to this lovely lady trying to create drafts ... I cry for 2 days afterwards and I'm like "Jesus Christ !!! I've been through it but it's INCREDIBLY CLEANSING yet hard ..." I hope I don't turn into the devil like I did with my first 2 pregnancies ... I think food will make me nice and you WILL NOT find me doing cardio 😂 ... Anyways it's a lazy hazy day and I'm going to be just that lazy 🙄 ...
