Dear H.R. Department,

I would like to inform your organization that I will be filing a judgment over the next 72 hours in the state of California. I obtained the judgment against Ms. Sheree Whitfield in connection with the process of her divorce with her former spouse, Bob Whitfield. Before obtaining the judgment against Ms. Whitfield, she had made several commitments to satisfy the outstanding balance for services rendered in connection with an investigation of her former spouse and his affiliates. Therefore, the balance was never satisfied and a judgment was rendered in the amount of $17,018.45 in the state of Louisiana at Civil District Court in the year of 2006. However, as of today the judgment still stands against Ms. Whitfield. The reason for my notice to your organization is that once my judgment is filed in the state of California, I will proceed with a "GARNISHMENT" of Sheree Whitfield's wages from your organization. Therefore, there will be a court order once I successfully obtain the domestication of the judgment in the state of California.

Ms. Whitfield will probably comment that she does not owe any balance, but I have to say, that would be inaccurate being that I have all of the documents to confirm that she has an outstanding balance and a judgment against her.

When Sheree hired me as the private investigator on her case she wanted many things accomplished, and discovered. and when the job was completed she claims all her capitol was depleted.

I trust that your organization will bring this information to Ms. Whitfield's attention and maybe she will own up to her obligation and stop avoiding her responsibilities. In the event Ms. Whitfield wants to notify me to satisfy her obligation, please feel free to have her notify me accordingly.

JUDGMENT DUE $28,858.93

Respectfully Submitted,

Dwayne Alexander
