I don't believe that u stopped loving me just in one phonecall. U either stopped loving me a long time ago or u still love me. I'm saddened, that u r so easily influenced by others, whose agenda purely to have u function as an entity and blaming ur nervous break down on me. Which is not true. That's what u want to hear and they giving it to u.

U have the issues with ur mother, the influences of Robyn and Hanna, just like french court, the issues of dynasty and power have come to play (they are at its peak now) and it's easier to blame the outsider, ur love, completely unprotected. So u betray me.

Love like that doesn't die so quickly. Despite all the pain I endured, I still love u. But, clearly, I do not see a way back after such betrayal of our little family. U always said u r here for a long hold and that's what I believed.

I still don't know what I've done to u to be treated the way I have been.

I'm seeing a therapist every day and my eyes are opening up to so many understandings as what really happened from the very beginning of this saga.

Oh, my King! Good luck to u!

I'm going to the church with Lucia and I'm praying every day to ur healing and to mine.

We had one of the most rare loves, we should have cherished it.

Before I wrote this letter to u I asked God's permission and he granted it.

Forgive me for my occasional weakness and for not being able to set the boundaries and for my occasional insecurity.

I loved u so much, I couldn't even look at another man. Why was there so much jealousy and anger.

As far as the tapes go. I only played one to my lawyer, because on March 15 Michelle proposed on ur behalf not a very generous gift for our daughter and there was nothing for me. My lawyers also told me that Tom Hansen said I wouldn't get a penny and more importantly, my lawyers warned me that ur lawyers are capable of false fabrication about me in press, i.e, an unfit mother, a prostitute etc so u can have the baby and I get to go to my " f...ing moth hole" as u told me.

I had no choice, after all of this I had to play one message to them.

I'm sorry , there was too many threats coming from ur lowyers and I do not believe that u didn't control this whole show.

The messages we r talking about I kept on my phone purely for u , to c how scared we were and for u to understand what this have done to us , how painful these words were, but hopeffuly , eventually ,to help us. That was the only reason.

If u honestly kept ur word that u gave on the bible to take care of us and to protect us, there would be no need for laywers, who really do not care for us, yet they managed to help with our separation.

I thank God for his immaculate interception in so many ways. Even the texts exidentaly send to me , but ment for smone else is Godsend , telling to me. And ur immidiate reaction to that was weekness and pleasing to somone, who was putting me down,who has got ur ear at the moment. Tells u what u really want to hear.

Thank u for taking the first stepp.

I wish u happiness and peace.

I'm finally obtaining mine.

It's a great shame.

U were the love of my life.

We have to be friends for Lucia and we have to respect one onother.

I alwayes respected u and wearshipped ur extraordinary talents, but I loved u as a man, as my best friend, who was funny and sweet. I will pass all of this to our daughter, I give u my word. She will love and respect u more then anyonelse.

TMZ has redacted the references to child custody and visitation.
