

Ms. Pollizi:

It has come to our attention that the story we released regarding your alleged arrest yesterday was false. We would like to inform you that it was not our intention to neither besmirch your reputation or character, nor cause you emotional stress or harm, nor exploit you for the sole purpose of promoting our website. We do admit that our actions were wrongful and reckless. And, would like to personally apologize to you for any besmirchment of your reputation or character that may have occurred; any emotional stress or harm that you may have endured; and for the perceived exploitation of you, your likeness, and/or your image for the sole purpose of promoting our site. We apologize for the way in which you perceive we portrayed you in an exploitive, degrading, or defamatory matter.

We would also like to inform you that upon your request we will no longer use nor refer to you, your name, your likeness, nor your image.

In addition to the above statement, we would just like to say that what we did was wrong. We are sorry we did it. We are sorry for the attention it brought you. We will not do anything of this sort in the future. And, we wish you the best in all of your endeavors.

Sincerely,

Myth Buster
