NOTICE

Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner under the other spouse's or domestic partner's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay-on-death bank account, transfer-on-death vehicle registration, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar thing. It does not automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner as beneficiary of the other spouse's or domestic partner's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance policies, retirement plans, and credit reports, to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions.

A debt or obligation may be assigned to one party as part of the dissolution of property and debts, but if that party does not pay the debt or obligation, the creditor may be able to collect from the other party.

An earnings assignment may be issued without additional proof if child, family, partner, or spousal support is ordered.

Any party required to pay support must pay interest on overdue amounts at the "legal rate," which is currently 10 percent.

1 C. The party seeking to file the Further Judgment, after providing notice and an
2 opportunity to cure pursuant to Paragraph B. above, or after providing notice of a proposed
3 modification pursuant to Paragraph B. above, shall request that the Court seal the Further Judgment
4 prior to filing same with the Court. If sealing is not permitted by the Court, then said party shall
5 seek to file the Further Judgment in the most confidential manner possible at the time of said filing.

6 Based upon the foregoing, the Court orders that either party may file the Further Judgment
7 executed concurrently herewith (after providing notice, and an opportunity to cure if there is an 8 alleged breach, as is set forth in Paragraph B above) provided that said party files it in the most
9 confidential manner possible at the time of the filing, and subject to these terms, the Court shall sign
10 and enter the Further Judgment.
