Good morning Ralph! I've reviewed the monthly expense tracker and I most definitely cannot afford 50% of household expenses at this time. Are you going to pay for half of the groceries as well as half of the kid's expenses for the month?

April 13, 2026 09:58 AM

Good morning. I produced per the Order and believe this is very generous as you haven't contributed anything towards the home in a number of years. Hopefully you can see what it has taken to run this household over the years 🙏

Your attorney should be advising you but if you don't pay, you will be in contempt.

The spreadsheet contains major expenses. There will be other smaller auxiliary costs that I'll send you directly for instance, I had to buy salt for the pool as it's being serviced today and lightbulbs

Ralph how can you say I haven't given you money toward the house in years? I've given you 50% of my money for real houses and all along you were getting paid directly from bravo as well I gave you 50% of my endorsement deals i.e.: Vivint, Drop It With Drew and my movies. Let's talk about how you took 300,000 out of the money I received personally on my personal injury settlement for my Achilles Rupture that you said were for so-called things around the house! Also, based on when we were in court last month the mortgage is 525,000 behind which you admitted on the Witness stand!

April 13, 2026 11:47 AM

Ralph you're in contempt of the first temporary order by not paying the mortgage. Why was the mortgage $250,000 behind when we were in court in March 2026? I'll wait....

You're making up stuff again so I won't entertain. When I said years, I'm speaking since filing for divorce, which is now 3+yrs. I'm just telling you how the process works but I hope ur receiving guidance from ur attorney. I never argued with u about the Order. I just followed. I don't know why ur arguing with me. Btw, my order had me paying 100%. I don't know why ur tripping about 50% especially since you make more money than me.

Drew Aniya's Therapist is in the hospital. I made an appointment with Psychiatric Associates in person on 4/30 @ 3pm per the order. We will have a pre-call with Tricia before the appt once she returns. Praying it's nothing major 🙏

What lies are being uncovered? All I can do is pray for you because you are absolutely a disgusting individual. You are evil and manipulative. Act like you're a nice person and calculating behind to scheme to try and destroy people. You always say you will kill people off and I'm experiencing it for myself now. All I can do is pray for you 🙏

I don't need your prayers. U don't know God

April 14, 2026 11:30 AM

I've been the best mom to these kids and you've even said to me that you wish you had a mom like me growing up. The truth is YOU ARE THE LIAR

April 14, 2026 11:30 AM

You're too delusional to even understand what's happening. Try praying for yourself
