

Adam Carolla Podcast

Dear Adam,

While we were both shocked and saddened to hear your opinions regarding the "Transgendered Community" this past week, we are happy to learn that you did in fact apologize for your comments. As you may now know, Transgender is the state of one's "gender identity" (self-identification as woman, man, neither or both) not matching one's "assigned sex". While people may self-identify as transgender, transgender includes many categories such as: cross-dressers (CD); transvestites (TV); cross-gender; drag kings; and drag queens; and, frequently, transsexual (TS).

While we understand that many people simply fear what they don't understand, we also know that if you spent some quality time with people who share our lifestyle, you'd see that many of us share the same interests as you! Many of us love to work on cars, play sports, and frequent the same concerts and movies.

At TRANNYDATE.COM we list the largest selection of profiles from the Transgendered community. We are a social network and dating website that has been very successful fixing many couples up.

As big fans of yours going back to your days on the "Man Show" and "Loveline", we'd like to invite you to spend the day at our offices in beautiful West Hollywood, CA and hang around a bunch of very creative and fun people!

We'd love to be your next destination for a live remote for the Adam Carolla Podcast.

Please let us know if you'd like to take us up on our offer, we'd be very happy to surround you with some very intriguing and fun people and we know you will understand why people do in fact care about us!

Best Regards,
Adam Silverstein
