

22 10. Irreconcilable differences have existed and continue to exist between Respondent and 23 me, which have caused our marriage to irretrievably break down. No counseling or reconciliation 24 effort will be of any value at this time. There will be no prejudice to Respondent if our marriage is 25 immediately dissolved, especially given the fact that throughout our marriage, we adhered to the 26 terms of our premarital agreement and maintained the separate property character of our assets.
