Hey Charlie,

As I sit back and watch all the craziness that seems to follow you I had an idea that you might like.

Within the next several days Vivid.com will be shooting a porn parody titled "Two and a Half Women." It may star three girls that I think you know. They are Elizabeth Ann, Melanie Rios and Cassandra Cruz.

We think it would be great if you would come in and direct the movie. You pick the scenarios, positions, etc. The fact that you are the ultimate connoisseur of adult films would definitely work to your advantage.

Based on all the publicity you have been getting, I am sure the sales will be outrageous.

Give me a call. I'd like to come by and discuss this further. By the way you may want to bring "The Goddesses" along with you to the set. They can either help you direct or, better yet, jump in the scene with the other girls.

In any event the set is yours. You are the king! Pick the girls. Pick the scenes. The whole world will be watching.

Best,

Steven Hirsch
Founder/Co-chairman

P.S. Being from Cleveland I loved "Major League." It was awesome.
