Hey bro

I'm sorry that bull s█it happened to you

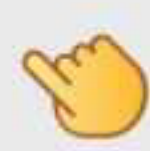

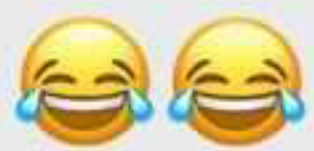

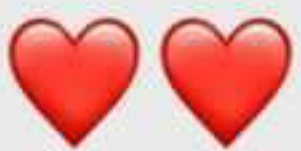

Don't let it ever discourage you from performing, I can it won't

But that video just upset me so much. You're a wonderful player and I wish you nothing but success and constant musical inspiration

Hey man, thank you for your kind and encouraging words! It means a lot coming from you, and it's just crazy to me how the internet brought us together. I definitely won't stop, I'm gonna go back out there this Friday and rock out!!

I see that you are on your Asia tour right now, that's gotta be tiring, how are you feeling? I'm also a big fan, I went to the concert in Evans, GA and I grew up like a 5 minute walk from where you played at. Hopefully once you're back in the US I can come to another concert and maybe get to meet you!

Last thing: with your influence, one of my biggest dreams is to meet Billy Joel as I cover most of his songs, but if you've got a chance to maybe reach out for me it would be awesome

Hahah the funny thing about Billy is that he doesn't even have a cell phone. You can only reach out to him via email , I haven't spoken to him in awhile

I would love for you to come to a show next time I'm playing in the US.

Just continue to be inspired friend...I will be watching :)
