

Dear Coach Pagone,

Dec. 6, 2015

How are you doing? I am well. as you said the mail situation is terrible. everyone is pointing the finger at everyone else. I surely am not receiving all my mail as well as mail I am sending is not being received. there were two letters you mentioned that I never received. This same attorney has said he is addressing the issue.

Speaking of the attorney Mr Whitten his firm Campbell and Whitten are supposed to be a Top firm in this area. Of course I have not personally been able to check them out. I have had to rely on others to get the info on them. I have asked him to contact both you and Zane that was several weeks ago. Mr. Whitten has been in trial and so has been a bit pre-occupied. He has said he is now completely focused on my case. I was very sad seeing the firm as they were not in contact with me for sometime. I remain ready to make that move. Of course it is very hard to get things done under these conditions. and the mail tampering just adds to the difficulties.

But you know Pagore sometimes you just have to make it work. That is what I will try to do. I will of course remind Mr. Whitten to contact you guys. One thing is good thing is he is absolutely certain of my ~~own~~ innocence and is absolutely certain of my acquittal.

Hopefully you and Tino have recovered from your bugs. Spending time around Grandkids will cause those flare-ups as they are also around many children.

I am glad to hear Cameron's party was a success. He will not remember it but you get video to pull out and embed when the bugs get passed over.

Finally! Bp is relevant again in football. I had not heard about it. I had stopped asking as it was never good news. Do you know who is coaching those kids? and they finally got some big linebacker. It is always about the C-line and D-line. If ~~that~~ they're good you will win games.
They may even get to play in one of those North v. South Division ~~to~~ ~~be~~ bowl games.

U.S.C. has actually recovered pretty well after the debacle with that Coach. Still ranked #20. Blasted #9 Stanford for ~~Grand~~ Pac 12 Championship last night. I do not know if they win. Either way they are in much better shape than Nebraska. Without the Michigan State win the Coach may have been out of a job. But U.S.C. will be fine. I hear they want a big name. Maybe John Spudis?

I am allowed a television or a radio. They broke my television so I am listening to the radio. I get a lot more done without the television anyway.

Alright Ragon I will let you go. Please say hello to everyone from me. I will let you know what kind of progress they are making. Take care.

Your Friend,

Jurrence Phelps
