Why haven't you paid the arrears and taken it out of foreclosure yet? I'm really confused. This isn't worth taking a chance.

The letter you have received is from someone effectively offering to help it's a sales letter dressed up to look as an official letter. There is no auction on 30 April.

How do you know there's no auction on April 30?

I don't think we are aware of everything that is happening now that the foreclosure has been registered you have a fast track to resolving the issues you have a fast track to resolving the issues

with the house and that is to sign the

been provided .
To date you have chosen a different path

I'm waiting on you

I've told you 100 different ways I will sign the agreement, but you haven't paid the arrears or taken it out out of foreclosure and now your lawyer is just delaying are you now saying you won't pay the arrears and take the house out of foreclosure like you promised? Is this another game that you're playing with mine and the children's lives?
