

Good Morning, my name is Rick French and my firm has been retained to handle media requests of Juror #6 in the Casey Anthony murder trial. Your name has been forwarded to us because you gave your contact information to the court and that information was in turn passed along to all jurors.

Our client -- a married, college-educated, 33-year-old white male with two young children - is willing to consider granting one or more media interviews so long as the opportunities are paid, which I know is always a sticky subject and believe me, I understand the delicacy of this type of negotiation. He will not entertain any offers that don't include compensation for a myriad of reasons.

If you are interested in discussing his request with me and can meet our client's terms, feel free to e-mail me or call me at the number below.
