

I knew I was never really for this world.

Jim, I thought we had chosen each other, family I believed it meant something and I let myself relax in your arms in the safety of being sure of one thing.. us. If everything went sideways we had each other. I've spent 3 days now in disbelief that you're not here, I thought when I saw you it would be okay again and it's not. I can go on brokenhearted and try to put the pieces back, I could, I just don't have the will to this time. I'm sorry you felt I wasn't there for you. I tried to give you my best part.

Dewdrop

Jim, as you can see there is a house full of stuff. I doesn't mean anything. If you could have your people sell it, all the clothes too and give whatever money is made to my family.

I don't really know about buerial or that sort of thing You are my family so whatever you choose will be fine

I love you, please forgive me I'm just not for this world.

Peace and love to all your hearts.
