

STATEMENT BY RICHARD WOLFE, Esq. ON BEHALF OF MKE 'THE SITUATION SORRENTINO REGARDING THE LAW SUIT FILED TODAY BY GOTHAM MANAGEMENT

Today, I received notice that Gotham Management has filed suit against our client, Michael Sorrentino. Gotham's suit is filled with lies and falsities that will be proven false in court. Concerning Gotham's assertion's and/or claims, make no mistake, Gotham had little or nothing to do concerning Michael's rise to fame.

The truth of the matter is that Michael and his brother Marc Sorrentino, created MPS Entertainment to manage Mike's career and business. MPS Entertainment is guided on a daily basis by CEO, Marc Sorrentino, who works tirelessly to build the brand that is Mike "The Situation" Sorrentino.

In truth, Gotham Casting, was nothing more than passive observers in certain deals that were signed during their brief tenure as Michaels' manager. Hence, they are not equitably entitled to commission that they were not cause of. It is important to note that Michael has fulfilled all his obligations to pay Gotham and he intends to abide by his obligations.

However, Gotham was negligent and ineffective in their attempts to enhance his career. Gotham was subversive, and they did MORE HARM than good to Michael and his career. Now, Gotham seeks to commission deals that Gotham had nothing to do with. Michael and MPS Entertainment will defend these greedy actions. In short, Michael will continue to pay Gotham what they are owed, but no more.
