

Dear Mr. Ryan,

As most Americans are out feverishly shopping for last second Christmas gifts, we here at Clips4sale.com have been busily combing through your wife Michelle's foot fetish videos, and she does in fact live up to her moniker of "I have pretty feet"!

As you may know, Clips4sale.com is the biggest fetish clip store online.

We have thousands of stores on our site that cater to every popular fetish. From hair washing and balloon popping, to stockings and feet, Clips4sale.com has something for everybody.

We are very impressed with your camera work Rex, you've proven that not only are you one hell of a football coach- but you are even a better director! You are the "Tarantino of Tootsie's"! Your videos are so professionally shot that we'd love for you and your lovely wife to take a look within our members area of our site. You will find that there are many foot fetish stores in there that make thousands of dollars per day, and we truly believe your wife Michelle can be the biggest foot model in here!

As we are fast approaching the Adult Entertainment Expo in Vegas in January, Clips4sale.com would be very interested in offering your wife Michelle some prime time exposure for her heavenly hooves. We'd be willing to offer her the sum of $10,000 to appear in our booth to sign and take photographs with our fans, of course the only stipulation we'd have is that she needs to appear barefoot in the booth.

We'd be very accommodating and willing to fly you First Class, put you up in a 5 star hotel, and are even willing to change our booth colors to green and white in honor of your beloved Jets! We hope you take our offer seriously as we know we can make Michelle's feet famous!

Please contact us ASAP so we may be able to arrange hotel and travel accommodations for Michelle, as hotels are selling out fast.

Signed

Neil O
