Ms. Anderson -

In light of your recent legal troubles we at MyGirlFund would like to offer you the services of the MyGirlFund.com community to raise money for your legal defense against millionaire Charlie Sheen.

MyGirlFund.com is a girl-centric social network that allows women to interact with a community of generous men to meet whatever personal goals they may have. While legal defense funds are rare on the site, they are not unprecedented.

Obviously you have had terrible luck meeting men in person, this is why MyGirlFund.com is the perfect vehicle for you. You can chat, flirt and interact with generous guys from the comfort of your own home and you can set your own rules for interaction.
