DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS

TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AND ORDER SETTING HEARING

Petitioners' Emergency Application for Temporary Restraining Order (the "Application") was presented to the Court today. Respondent is McKenna West.

The Court considered the pleadings and declaration of Petitioner O.A. and finds that Petitioners are entitled to a temporary restraining order. subject to the Emergency Order Granting Temporary Relief for the Protection of the Child signed simultaneously with this order.

IT IS THEREFORE ordered that the clerk of court issue a temporary restraining order restraining Respondent McKenna West, and Respondent McKenna West is immediately restrained from:

- a. Making or attempting to make any medical decision for or on behalf of the child the subject of this suit (the "Child");
- b. Exercising any possession of the Child;
- c. Directing or attempting to direct any hospital or medical provider, including but not limited to UT Southwestern and Children's Hospital, concerning the Child's care;
- d. Giving, refusing, or withdrawing consent for any medical care or treatment of the Child;
- e. Representing that she is the Child's parent, guardian, or medical decision-maker to anyone, including hospital staff;
- f. Signing any document on behalf of the Child or Petitioners;
- g. Interfering with Petitioners' exclusive right access to the Child, the Child's medical providers, or information concerning the Child;
- h. Interfering with communications between the Petitioners' and the Child's medical providers; and
- i. Removing or attempting to remove the Child from the hospital, UT Southwestern and Children's Hospital, or taking possession of the Child without Petitioners' written consent or further order of the Court.

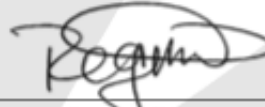

Nothing in this Order limits the right of McKenna West who will give birth to the child to make decisions to safeguard her own health or the health of the pregnancy.

This restraining order is effectively immediately and shall continue in force and effect until further order of this Court or operation of law. This order shall be binding on Respondent; on Respondent's agents, servants, and employees; and on those persons in active concert or participation with her who receive actual notice of this order by personal service or otherwise. The requirement of a bond is waived.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the clerk shall issue notice to Respondent McKenna West to appear, and McKenna West is ORDERED to appear, before this Court, on August 25, 2026 at 1:00PM .M. Respondent McKenna in the 301st District Court - in person West is commanded to appear at that time and show cause, if any exist, why a temporary injunction should not be issued against her. The purpose of this hearing, is to determine whether, while this case is pending:

1. The preceding temporary restraining order should be made a temporary injunction pending final hearing.

SIGNED on 8/11/2026 12:24PM . M.

JUDGE PRESIDING

Associate Judge

Pending further order of this Court, Petitioners, Omar Ahmed and Nausheen Gilkar are authorized to make medical decisions on behalf of the child and receive protected health information concerning the child, subject to the Emergency Order Granting Temporary Relief for the Protection of the Child.

This order is subject to the Emergency Order Granting Temporary Relief for the Protection of the Child signed simultaneously with this order. If any provisions conflict, the Emergency Order Granting Temporary Relief for the Protection of the Child shall prevail.
