

Nadya Suleman

Dear Nadya,

We've been following news of your activities to earn money to pay off your mortgage through a garage sale and recently through bartending.

We are offering you an opportunity to work on an upcoming Vivid production as a member of our crew. The position would pay $1K per day.

Let me be clear, you will not have to perform sex and no nudity is required. This could be the beginning of a new career direction for you as you would get solid OJT (On the Job Training) to learn about the adult movie making business. You would be a production assistant and work closely with our production manager to make sure that the director and talent are provided with all that is needed before and after the production.

We have several Vivid shoots scheduled for this month and so we hope you will get back to us quickly.

Sincerely,
