Dear Draymond,

It's Steven Hirsch from Vivid. I wanted to let you know I caught a glimpse of your Snapchat and it looks like you'd be perfect for a VividTV production.

Here's the deal: We will give you $100k to star in a porn called "Drayzilla." You call all the shots. You pick your co-stars and set up the scene however you want. We'll be there to make sure it comes off perfectly. After your runner-up performance last year I'm sure you'll be ready to really drive it home.

There's no doubt this will be a huge hit and everyone will see a lot of Green. What do you say Dray? Let's do this and this time you'll really make history.

BTW, we want to assure you that you will be in good hands. Vivid is the world leader in adult film production, having received more awards than any other company in the industry. We also dominate the celebrity sex tape category and we're quite confident in our marketing skills. Our past releases have included such personalities as Kim Kardashian, Kendra Wilkinson, Jimi Hendrix, Pamela Anderson and many others.

I look forward to hearing from you very soon.

Sincerely,

Steven Hirsch
