

Kanye West

August 10, 2018

Dear Mr. West,

I personally want to thank you for the incredible mention of Blacked.com last night on the Jimmy Kimmel Live! program. It was an honor to have you point out one of the many fruits of our labor and the work of the talented artists we work with.

Consider this letter an offer sheet to you to direct a legendary adult film for BLACKED.com with full artistic control on your end. This is a great opportunity to bridge the gap between adult entertainment and mainstream, something never done in history! I already have adult stars Tori Black and Kendra Sunderland on board to star in this movie.

Please get back to me at your earliest convenience. My phone # is [REDACTED]

Sincerely,

Greg Lansky
