It is truly sickening that people would use the death of a young 16 year old girl to try to quickly score political points, rather than to responsibly make sure that what they are sharing is accurate.

Regarding the alleged “manifesto”, it is an obvious troll. How can you tell? Because the deranged individual plagiarized the exact same language from the ChristChurch New Zealand Manifesto, combined with other manifestos and writings freely available on the web.

In essence, it is a plagiarized document.

It would take 4 seconds of adult thinking and/or journalistic integrity to recognize this is a troll.

On your left: language from the alleged Christ Church manifesto from 2019

On your right: language from the alleged leak manifesto circulating today.

That is how it is plausible that both me and Mr. Beast, who clearly do not share the same politics, wind up once again in a manifesto. It also explains why this individual, despite his numerous accounts, never followed me or Mr. Beast on any of his socials.

This is a deranged troll that is, at least in part, due to the death of journalism. Copy cats knows that they can gain traction by just mentioning what they perceive to be big names, because the media will push those names for clicks.

I will have more to say on my show tomorrow, as I copied all of the relevant documents and social accounts.

Stay tuned.
