Warning ⚠ Please take the time to scroll and read this. Last night, my husband and I went to dinner for his birthday at @maggianoslittleitaly in Orlando, Florida. Unbeknownst to us, there had been a Trump rally in the area, where he gave his speech, just a few hours before. While driving to the restaurant we came upon multiple rally attendees who were in the streets with their #Trump2024 signs and CONFEDERATE flags. We were both amused and worried. (Not saying what happened next was BECAUSE of Trump, just telling the story exactly how it unfolded). We continued on to the restaurant where we had reservations. We were greeted by a black male host when we got there, who was ready to seat us right away. Then another hostess showed up, white female, who whispered to the male "well they're gonna have to go to table 113". He responded saying, "oh..ok". Then proceeded to take us to our table.....all the way in the back of the restaurant. We got to the table and i immediately noticed a stark contrast from the patrons in the front of the restaurant, versus where we were being seated. Guys....I shit you not... this restaurant was segregated!!!!!!!!!! In 2021!!!!!!!! Our minds were BLOWN!!!!!!!! While we wanted to leave because we couldn't believe what we were witnessing and being subjected to, our hunger from traveling all day without a single meal outweighed our shock of the moment. Needless to say, we sat there watched ppl come and go, and yeah.....they continued to seat black and brown folk in the back by the door. We made sure to document as much as we could because we didn't even think anyone would believe us. But guys....this ACTUALLY happened!!!! If you've stayed and read this post in it's entirety, please share this story. •
