

Excessively Loud and Disrespectful Neighbors

The house next door, [REDACTED] have parties almost every day and night. It looks as the house was purchased as a party house. There are always lots of cars on the driveway and lots of different people. We were trying to talk to them a few times but they still disrespect us and other neighbors. Our lives are extremely affected by the constant music. Our walls are shaking because of the base. They turn on the music at 2am or any other time. We cannot get any sleep for about 3 months already. If anyone else is affected as we are by this party house, please message me. I would really appreciate any help. Thanks in advance.

[REDACTED] 21 May

Hi neighbors, Thank you for contacting us. We have called the police almost every day for the past 2 weeks. Both my husband and I had to take days off work because we were not able to sleep at night. We moved to [REDACTED] because we fell in love with the serene atmosphere and now we live in a nightmare.

They also installed unnecessarily bright lights pointing up and lighting up my bedroom like stadium lights at night. The irony is that it used to be a party house up until a couple of years ago when Slash rented it. Who knew that having a rock star as a neighbor is a recipe for tranquility! Have you tried contacting [REDACTED] or any other local SLO?

Is it those a-holes having a huge house party right now with music absolutely blasting! Been going on for hours at a lower volume and they cranked it up right before midnight. Sounds like they're using commercial grade equipment. They also had a long caravan of vehicles pull up right at midnight... more cars keep coming and coming. No end in sight and tomorrow/today is a work day unless your "work" is throwing a stupid orange basketball making millions. Yes, the owner is an effing baller straight outta Compton. It's amazing to think how peaceful that house was when Slash was renting it. Unbelievable!

RPG's would be a better option. Wishing the new neighbor a torn NCL/ACL and an abrupt end to the NBA career. Channeling inner Roseanne Barr in the middle of the night, lol.

We are definitely not sleeping tonight. It's like a nightclub next door. We have to go to work tomorrow. Could someone please call the police. We just did... I think if enough people call, the police will take it more seriously. There are probably 50+ people in their backyard. Very loud music and base.

There's gotta well over 100 people just based on the number of arriving cars since midnight. Who knows how many were there before...
