

To whom it may concern,

I am interested in selling the green 1997 GMC Suburban that Christopher Wallace was shot in, on March 7th, 1997. My husband and I bought the car in October of '97, when we were looking for a larger vehicle for our family of 6. We bought the car from a broker in Chula Vista, CA, who had bought it from an auction in L.A. We owned the car for years, using it as our family vehicle, not knowing about its history. In 2005, an LA Detective called and informed us about the car's involvement in the shooting of Biggie Smalls and that it would be needed for the trial. We have kept the car now for 20 years and decided it is finally time to sell it. It is still in good running condition with 114,000 miles. I read you were selling Tupac's BMW and wondered if you would also be interested in selling our car. I have requested the LAPD to return the original bullet-riddled doors upon closure of the case. These doors will in turn be passed onto the new buyer.

Thank You,
