Dear Usher,

I head up Vivid Entertainment, the leader when it comes to the marketing and distribution of celebrity sex tapes. Our movies have featured such stars as Kim Kardashian, Kendra Wilkinson, Montana Fishburne, Tila Tequila and others.

We've learned that a sex video of you and your ex-wife is making its way around the adult industry. As a result of this being an intimate and very personal tape we can certainly understand why you would want to stop its distribution.

What you may not know about Vivid is that there are many celebrity sex tapes that we have actually stopped from being distributed. We may therefore be able assist you in stopping your own video from any type of circulation.

I hope you will contact me at the number below.

Sincerely,

Steven Hirsch
