Dear Ms. Principal:

After reviewing all of the testimony and evidence regarding the incident that occurred in your home on December 26, 2008, I can now understand why you felt that I was threatening you, which, in turn, led you to defend yourself. I want you to know that I had no such intention and am sorry for the misunderstanding and regret that the incident occurred. I am sorry for any unintentional harm or injury to your little dog Mei-ling. It was never my intention to harm her and I have prayed for her full recovery.
