Dear Ms. Williams,

We are very sad to hear the news that you recently lost your Sugar Daddy from Nigeria. While this may be a sad time for you, we know this happened for a reason. YOU see we at sugardaddyforme.com see this as an incredible opportunity for you to meet the RIGHT Sugar Daddy of your dreams!

Allow me to introduce myself, my name is Gautam Sharma and I am the founder of SugarDaddyForMe.com the World's Largest Sugar Daddy Dating website with over 4.5 million members. Over 2,000 new members join our site every single day. Since launching in 2005, our website has set the standard when it comes to ladies looking for discerning gentleman who love to fill the role of "Sugar Daddy" for them.

I'd like to offer you an incredible opportunity to get involved with our website by setting you up with a private labeled sugar daddy website for you, and all the women who follow you via your work on Dish Nation, The Real Housewives of Atlanta, and on all of your social media pages.

We can create porshassugarbabies.com and send our 4.5 million existing members to your site. You will receive 50% of the gross revenues that the site generates. If you promote this site to all of your loyal followers on all of your social media pages, you could potentially make over a million dollars in no time, to save your Rolls Royce. While social media may have been the reason for you losing your Sugar Daddy initially, let's use it to help make you a lot of $$$ promoting your site, and throw more shade in Cynthia's direction this Christmas.

Unlike so many people reading the story this week, we aren't saying you're a 'gold digger' we think you are more of an opportunist. Get in touch with us so that we can get you started on your way to financial independence, and get your bills paid this month. Get it girl.

Regards,

Gautam Sharma
