I have to go to the dentist for deep scaling . No fun but kind of necessary.

Perhaps I can avoid gum surgery. I am going to Kenyon after that.

I really am losing my grip . I desperately need a solution . Sorry it has to affect you. I can't stand anything any more. I'm full of shit & need to shovel some out . There is no more room to be able to take it . I know I have reached some kind of limit & need to off load . I don't know how. I'm stuck. I try to be ok but it overpowers me . & I'm something I don't want to be. It's a primal scream thing. The pain is too great & everywhere I turn is making it heavier.

Oh to have peace ! Oh to have joy . Oh to be able to provide it for another.

I'm a fucking failure.
