

Here it goes.

Dear Mel,

This two articles are new (written a week ago), they were sent to you as an example of all the publications in all the other papers and cites that have been spreading like a virus since the april 14th, when the first news of our break up appeared. I was just informed today of all of them.

If you didn't read it, than you should know- they full of hurtful missinformation and they claim that you dumped me. But more importantly, it is very obvious who is feeding the info to the press .

This articles are clearly indicating to the sourse , which is in my opinion, your daughter Hanna. As some of our private facts are in this articles were only knowen to her at the time. If you remember, you told me to call Hanna on the 19th of february (u asked me to call her, if I cared for you) and so i did.

In this articles they refer to the "friend of the family" a lot. What kind of the " friend of the family" will be writing false info and trying to destroy the reputation of someone unknown to them, Oksana, for three whole years, without any alternative motive, or financial reason (that your family is so much about , as it turns out) ?

Does your family think that my modesty and class could pass for stupidity?

And i would've never found out or guessed about their skeeming?

Do they think, i will let them carry on with ruining my reputation, which was unblemished before i ever layed my eyes on you?

You see, since our break up is public, people who knew us have called me and reported on what's been done by your family, and the info they gave to the tabloids.

The facts are stubborn things, the information is power, you told me so yourself.

Untill this morning I was still missing you so much and secretly wanted and hoped for us to be together again.

For this beautiful baby, for this biggest love i've ever had. I thought ,that through the pain we went in the last two months, we both have changed and will be more understanding and loving and giving. I still beilived that you loved me, but now i dont. I think you knew what was going on.

I still would've forgiven you even your violence and rage, if you would have made changes, but the betrayal is so much harder to digest.

I see now, that you seemply grown tired of me a while ago, but you were too weak to tell me.

You were rather easily influenced by Hanna and Robyn, and you allowed them to manipulate you over time. Its clear to me that , Robyn was manipulating you through Hanna, it was easier to get to you in a right way.

The distraction of us has become the most important and constant thing in thier lifes and they have put so much thought and energy into this compaine, out of anger, spite, gelousy and greed.

I had no idea how much they hated me until i was told today by our mutual friend, who really knows a lot and i trust this person. Robyn knows her very well.
Untill then, i wasn't sure, but now i know.

There are even articles about Hanna and Robyn declaring a silent war against me in order to destroy us and protect the finances.
And there are articles clearing your name at my expence.

The facts are stubborn things, the information is power.

Why have you never stepped in for me and protected me and made them stop ? You, who was so madly in love with me, whom i gave a child?

You, who told me, that you will always look after the most cherished and precious thing in your life, our love, from everyone, including your family? Were these only words?

Why did you not stop them from destroying us and breaking us apart?

Why did you not protect your beloved and the mother of your child?

Why did you start believing them and their own home-cooked false facts , that they have been fabricating and feeding to the press for so long?

Why?

For three years?

I know I'm very trusting, and believe people too much. I believed you and believed that with time and my kindness, your family will be nicer to me. I was wrong. It's just too many of them. You didn't do anything to protect Lucia or me.

You sacrificed our big love, as if it was a sin, weighing you down, so it would bring you closer to your idea of God. What weakness and hypocrisy.
Im sorry , but you are not in grace, a person who is capable of such violence and cruelty can not be in grace. Its a scam.

Are you a little boy, or are you a man?

Why are you so easily being influenced by your mommy Robyn? Or is it two of them now, Robyn and Hanna?

You are either ignorant or pretending not to see how cleverly you have been manipulated.

Either that , or you simply never loved me.

Then what was it? An act?

As far as the recorded messages go.

I only recorded them for you, so you can hear for yourself. What you sound like once you are enraged. For you to understand and to help you to change.

And how painful it is to listen to your abuse. How damaging and confusing .

Your rages happened often, but you always conveniently forgot what you have said to me and what you really sound like whilst in it.

Instead of looking into yourself you sent me to the lawyers.

The reason i played two messages, out of 9 recorded, to my lawyers (7 still haven't been heard by anyone) , is because they and my phycologist, after i explained the situation, in one voice told me that you and your entourage (your lawyers, Vicky, Neerob, Kenyon, Robyn and Hanna) will convince you to take Lucia away from me. And that 'your entourage (with your blessing) will use any false facts to try to tarnish my reputation in order not to take care of me financially and take the baby away. (So much for swearing on the Bible).

(The only recording i have made were on that night of your rage, the 18th of february, only 9 of them. But , if you remember, you called me at least 30 times and left endless insulting messages everywhere as well as you spoke to me many times)

This is just like at the court! Where you are the King, but constantly and cleverly manipulated by your stuff and any threat to the crown or power is punished mercilessly. In their eyes Im just your mistress, and always have been. They couldn't do anything to me before , you loved me too much. But now when you grew tired of me, they have stepped in to take over the power and to influence you in your state of busyness and state of weakness. It is not in their interest to tell you the truth,ever,its safer to tell you what you'd like to hear, because their lively-hood is dependent upon you.

My mother has always told me this, but i didn't believe her, i was too much in love with you, i was blind. But now not only my mother thinks so.

If not for these recorded messages , you and your loyal people would have used any dirty trick they could. This is what Ive been told and now i believe it.
Too much evidence, my dear.

So, Im sending my lawyers the rest of the messages and im sending you a few just to see why they were recorded in the first place.
You will also hear in these why we are not together, that the evidence of your betrayal is obvious and what kind of man you are. Im finally getting it. It took me that long.
No one who claims to love God so much would say such godless things.

(the end)

(the two messages are to follow)

I don't believe that u stopped loving me just in one phonecall. U either stopped loving me a long time ago or u still love me. Im saddened, that u r so easily influenced by others, whose agenda purely to have u function as an entety and blaming ur nerviuos break down on me. Which is not true. Thats what u want to hear and they giving it to u.

U have the issues with ur mother, the influences of Robyn and Hanna, just like french court, the issues of dinasty and power have come to play (they are at its peek now) and its easier to blame the outsider,ur love, completely unprectected. So u betray me.

Love like that doesn't die so quickly. Depite all the pain I endured, I still love u. But , clearly , I do not c a way back after such betrayal of our little family. U always said u r here for a long hold and that's what I beilived.

I still don't know what I've done to u to be treated the way I have been.

I'm seing a therapist evry day and my eyes are opening up to so many understandings as what really happened from the very beginning of this saga.

Oh, my King! Good luck to u!

Im going to the church with Lucia and I'm praying evryday to ur healing and to mine.

We had one of the most rear loves, we should have charished it.

Before I wrote this letter to u I asked Gods permission and he granted it.

Forgive me for my acasional weekness and for not being able to set the boudaries and for my acasional insecurity.

I loved u so much, I couldn't even look at another man. Why was there so much gelousy and anger.

As far as the tapes go. I only played one to my lawyer, because on march 15 Michelle proposed on ur behalf not a very generous gift for our daughter and there was nothing for me. My lowers also told me that Tom Hansen said I wouldn get a penny and more importaunly , my lowyers warned me that ur laywers are cabable of false fabrication about me in press, i.e, an unfit mother, a prostitute etc so u can have the baby and I get to go to my " f...ing moth hole" as u told me. I had no choice, after all of this I had to play one message to them.

I'm sorry , there was too many threats coming from ur lowyers and I do not believe that u didn't control this whole show.

The messages we r talking about I kept on my phone purely for u , to c how scared we were and for u to understand what this have done to us , how painful these words were, but hopeffuly , eventually ,to help us. That was the only reason.

If u honestly kept ur word that u gave on the bible to take care of us and to protect us, there would be no need for laywers, who really do not care for us, yet they managed to help with our separation.

I thank God for his immaculate interception in so many ways. Even the texts exidentaly send to me , but ment for smone else is Godsend , telling to me. And ur immidiate reaction to that was weekness and pleasing to somone, who was putting me down,who has got ur ear at the moment. Tells u what u really want to hear.

Thank u for taking the first stepp.

I wish u happiness and peace.

I'm finally obtaining mine.

It's a great shame.

U were the love of my life.

We have to be friends for Lucia and we have to respect one onother.

I alwayes respected u and wearshiped ur extraordinary talents, but I loved u as a man, as my best friend, who was funny and sweet. I will pass all of this to our daughter, I give u my word. She will love and respect u more then anyonelse.

I know u r trying to c Lucia. Next Saturday would be great, at Bobstone pls. I will be here because I'm working on my piano, I have no desire to speak to u. But I might pop out for an hour whilst u here, if all cool.

I do appoligise, but Lucia is just too small for me not to be around her at the moment. When she will walk and talk u will be able to c her in different circumstances.

There also be Edith and Tracy, who is staying with me.

Pls let me know if that's agreeble.

Oksana
